JPMorganChase

A New Keating Electric Custom Pasta System Drop-In Unit installed at JP Morgan Chase in Brooklyn!

There is a new 14 Custom Pasta Electric Drop-In unit installation at the JP Morgan & Chase Metrotech Center, located in Brooklyn, NY. The unit was purchased specifically to be used to cook Ramen noodles in the Genji Ramen station.

Our congratulations to our sales representatives in New Jersey, Frank Schweighardt and Mike Klatman of TD Marketing Co., on a job well done.
